Tennis is an upcoming sport at our campus, with active development of courts under progress. Being an intricate game it demands high levels of attention span during the matches. While the courts are still a work in progress there is a good spirit among students willing to learn how to play this sport.

BOARD GAMES

Board games are traditionally a subset of table-top games that involve counters or pieces moved or placed on a pre-marked surface or "board", according to a set of rules. In common parlance, however, a board game need not necessarily contain a physical board. Some games are based on pure strategy, but many contain an element of chance; and some are purely chance, with no element of skill. Games usually have a goal that a player aims to achieve. Early board games represented a battle between two armies, and most modern board games are still based on defeating opponents in terms of counters, winning position, or accrual of points. At IIT Bhubaneswar we have people playing all sorts of board games some of them include chess, carroms etc ..

GYM AND WEIGHTLIFTING

"The worst thing I can be is the same as everyone else and I hate it" - Arnold Schwarzenegger.

The gym is not a social place for the fit, it is a place where an individual transforms himself into someone different from the crowd. IIT Bhubaneswar provides its residents with a fully functional gym which is a perfect combo of modern machines and old school weight training. It not only helps you build muscle but also keeps your mental health in a perfect condition. So be ready to channelise your energy and hit the gym and transform your mind and soul.

SWIMMING

Swimming is fundamentally the self-propulsion of a person through water, utilized for recreation, sport, exercise, or survival. In common parlance, however, it extends beyond mere locomotion to become a holistic discipline for both body and mind. Some forms are based on pure explosive speed and technical precision, while others rely on rhythmic endurance; and some are purely recreational, focusing on relaxation with no element of competition. The activity usually has a goal, whether it is shaving milliseconds off a lap time or achieving overall cardiovascular fitness. Historically, swimming began as a crucial survival skill, yet most modern swimming is based on self-improvement, racing against peers, or maintaining physical well-being. At IIT Bhubaneswar, with the inauguration of our new swimming pool, we have enthusiasts practicing various styles, including freestyle, breaststroke, butterfly, and water polo..
